Title:

“Schools Win The Pools”

Body

South Gloucestershire Leisure Trust has just announced the results of their summer pool competition. Pools 4 Schools which ran over the summer months asked Leisure Centre customers to vote for a school each time they visited the Leisure Centre. These votes were then tallied up at the end and transferred into prizes for their school.

Four Primary Schools have each won a Beach Pool Party (one in each of the centre catchment areas, Bradley Stoke, Kingswood, Thornbury and Yate) and a FREE Family Swim Voucher (worth £8.10) for each child at their school. The Leisure Trust also issued additional prizes to other schools depending on their number of votes. In total they have sent around 1000 FREE Family Swim Vouchers (worth £8,100) across South Gloucestershire Primary Schools.

James Clifford Senior Marketing Manager for South Gloucestershire Leisure Trust said “We are pleased to be able to reward these schools with a fun swimming pool event and FREE Family Swim Vouchers which will hopefully benefit the whole family and encourage everyone to become more active.”
