Title:

“International tournament in Bradley Stoke - Special Needs Judo”

Body:

Bradley Stoke Special Needs Judo Club is hosting its 2nd International Special Needs Judo Tournament on Saturday 24th February.

More than 100 children with special needs from all over the UK and across Europe will be taking part in this celebration of Judo skills and accessibility.

The club, based at Bradley Stoke Leisure centre, was the first to open in South Gloucestershire and head coach, Steve Westlake, has opened a second club up at Thornbury Leisure Centre. Both clubs accept people with any special needs and have achieved regional and international medal success.

The championship starts at 10am and runs through until 5pm.

Ends
