Title:

“£194,400 of Free Swimming”

Body

South Gloucestershire Leisure, the Trust operating the 4 leisure centres in South Gloucestershire are giving away 24,000 free family swim vouchers this summer, worth £194,400.

The vouchers are being distributed in the council's summer activity publication, 'The Hub' which is sent to every primary school child in the region. Families will be able to take advantage of the free voucher until Sunday 3rd September 2006, and represents the biggest swimming giveaway ever offered in South Gloucestershire. It further demonstrates the Trust's commitment to supporting local communities to become more active.

Family swim tickets usually cost £8.10 and are great value for money way to get the whole family spending time together, having fun and getting fit too for just £2.03 per person.

The Hub is being distributed to every primary school child in South Gloucestershire in the next month and lists activities in libraries, leisure centres, community sport centres and more.
